Applying for Admission of Research Students, October 2024

[Qualifications]

1. Applicants should hold a bachelor's degree or equivalent higher academic ability.
2. Applicants are required to obtain permission from an academic supervisor of UEC.
   Notice: UEC may accept the applicant who has completed less than a 16-year-education as a research student if UEC admits the applicant has the "equivalent higher academic ability" in accordance with the education systems of each country. In this case, the applicant is required to consult with the prospected supervisor and the International Student Office in advance: more than 10 days before. Please note that each applicant has to pass a screening of qualifications for admission of the graduate school, even if the application for research student is accepted. Thus, the applicants need to apply with full understanding of these requirements.

Domestic Applicants (living in Japan):   Thursday 1 August to Wednesday 21 August, 2024   (due NLT)

[Research Topics/an Academic Supervisor]

Applicants are required to obtain their prospective supervisor's informal consent in order to apply for admission. If the supervisor is not determined, unfortunately you are not qualified to apply for admission.

If a supervisor agrees to accept you, please ask him/her to prepare "Academic Supervisor Confirmation Form (Form 3)" and "Documents on Security Export Control", and to submit them to the International Student Office (ISO). By receiving them directly from the supervisor, ISO considers your application approved.

To find a supervisor of UEC, go to the website listed below or search by "Researcher Profile and Achievements" based on your research interests. Then, contact to UEC faculty members directly by email, phone or visiting to receive his/her permission.

[Required Documents]

　Since the screening will be conducted based on the application documents, please carefully fill out and submit all the forms required. Basically, applicants are required to prepare them by typing in either Japanese or English.

> If there is any false information or falsification in the submitted documents, the acceptance or admission may be canceled even after notification of acceptance or admission.
>
> *If there is suspicion of falsification or forgery, the university may conduct an investigation to confirm the authenticity.
